Additional Important Information

Standard age, driver and credit rental qualifications apply. Avis may elect not to rent to any person who does not meet the Avis safe driver criteria, or who has incurred one or more insurance losses with the Avis. Unless contrary to law, any liability insurance available to the renter or authorized driver will apply to all rentals under the Programme as it does to all other renters. Discounted rates are as above only and do not include Personal Accident Insurance (PAI)/Personal Effects Coverage or other optional items or services not specifically listed to each country above. Avis standard rental agreement will be in effect at the time and place of each rental and shall govern all rentals. Per the standard, the reservations will need to be made with a minimum of 24 hours advanced notice. The above promotional rates will be subject to periodic review. Currently, they have validity until December 14, 2012. Black out periods can apply for the discounts and for the free upgrades only as a company policy to all its customers in the said territory. Also, promotional discounts are discounted up to the indicated percent reductions and they apply to daily or weekly rentals of the regular fleet (not including Cool Cars) at participating locations and can not be combined with other promotions/offers.
