

RBC appoints new Area Vice President and Country Head for Cayman

Khadene Lobban

GEORGE TOWN, April 29, 2024 — RBC Royal Bank (Cayman) Limited (“RBC”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Khadene Lobban as Area Vice President (“AVP”), Personal Banking and Country Head, RBC Cayman Islands, effective May 1, 2024. She will succeed Ericka Rolle, who has transitioned to her new role as Managing Director and Vice President, Personal Banking for The Bahamas and Turks and Caicos Islands.

In her new role as AVP and Country Head, Lobban will assume full responsibility for the Cayman market, steering it into its next phase of growth, focusing on strengthening relationships with the Government, regulatory bodies, and the community.

With a career of over two decades in the financial services industry, Lobban brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record of strong business performance and leadership to her new role. In addition to her most recent role as Branch Manager, she also held the role of Private Banker with RBC Wealth Management and prior to this, senior roles in Marketing and Change Management at other Financial Institutions across Cayman.

“We could not be more thrilled to have Khadene step into this critical role,” said LaSonya Missick, RBC’s Regional Vice President, Personal and Private Banking, RBC Caribbean Banking. “Her track record, deep industry knowledge, and passion for excellence make her the ideal leader to drive our strategy and operations in the Cayman Islands. We are fully confident in Khadene’s abilities and how she will continue to support our purpose of helping our clients thrive and communities prosper,” she added.
